

THE FUTURE IS HERS

The #FutureIsHers. Join us, on our campaign to reimagine what equality looks like.

This video transcript is part of the Future Is Hers multimedia series, celebrating innovators, risk-takers, and change makers supported by the Ford Foundation, who have impacted the lives of women and girls around the globe.

Transcript begins.

[Throughout this video, interviews are interspersed with footage of women and girls in various places across the world gathering, dancing, learning, protesting, planning, and speaking.]

Cecile Richards: We're at this incredible moment where women are standing up, speaking out, running for office, saying, "What more can I do?"

Monica Simpson: This time gives us an opportunity to be extremely creative. To really think outside of the box, to be innovative.

Paula Moreno: To rethink power, to rethink the kind of leadership that we want.

Lourdes Rivera: To have autonomy and control over our own lives.

Dina Bakst: That's when there will be equality.

Isa Noyola: I know that a bright future is possible.
